Tim Donohue is also a registered tax (financial) adviser and is authorised to provide a tax (financial) service, where the advice is:

- provided in the context of the personal advice authorised by Consultum, and
- part of the financial advice which interprets and applies the tax laws (including tax, superannuation and SMSF laws) to your personal circumstances.

Any tax agent services that are provided (including the preparation and filing of tax returns and liaison with the ATO, etc), are not provided under Consultum's AFSL and are not covered by this FSG. They should be treated as a separate business activity.

How is your financial adviser paid?

The fees and commissions (commissions are only from insurance) payable to PMD Financial Advisers are explained in Part one of the FSG and also below. Consultum may retain up to 5 per cent of these fees and commissions and then pay the balance to PMD Financial Advisers, which engages your adviser to provide financial services. Of the amount received by PMD Financial Advisers from Consultum, your adviser is paid a salary, part of which may cover your adviser's operational expenses.

Service and advice fees paid by you

Your initial appointment is complimentary. At this meeting, Tim Donohue will explain how PMD Financial Advisers operates, what you can expect and the payment options. All fees payable by you will be explained to you at the time advice is given and will also be detailed in a Statement of Advice, Record of Advice and Product Disclosure Statement(s).

You will have the ability to select your preferred payment option from the options below prior to the provision of advice. All amounts noted below are inclusive of GST:

Fee for service – once-off

The product provider deducts a once-off fee for the services provided to you in relation to your account. This fee can vary from $550 to $5,500, or may be higher depending on complexity and time involved but will be disclosed to you prior to engagement of our professional services.

Statement of Advice (SoA)

A Statement of Advice fee is charged to cover the cost of researching, developing and preparing your advice document. This fee typically ranges from $3,300 to $6,600, or may be higher depending on complexity and time involved but will be disclosed to you prior to engagement of our professional services.

Fee for service – implementation - initial

An initial fee for service represents the cost of implementing the advice contained in the SoA. This fee may be charged as up to $1,100 plus GST for non-complex implementation. However for complex implementation or major transactions, the implementation fee is to be agreed.

Adviser service fee

The Adviser service fee represents the cost of providing our annual professional services to you. A summary of the services which you receive for this fee is contained in the Client Service Agreement. This fee may be up to 1.1 per cent per annum of assets under advice or charged as a flat dollar fee starting from $5,500, or a combination of both options can be negotiated depending on the complexity of the advice and the agreed level of service being provided. You only pay an Adviser service fee if you agree to a Client Service Agreement and then, only until it expires.

Commission for life risk insurance products – Policies issued from 1 January 2020

Initial commission payable under an upfront structure is capped at 66 per cent from 1 January 2020. Ongoing commission under an upfront structure is 22 per cent of the annual premium paid. Both initial and ongoing commission under a level structure will continue to be capped at 37 per cent.

Other benefits?

Apart from the "Other benefits" section disclosed in part one, there are no other benefits received or relationships that may influence the recommendation.
